Welcome to Fielding's School of Leadership Studies Summer Session 2017

Session is one of several opportunities that our community has to gather together, to learn, work, laugh, and develop intellectually and personally. I hope you take this opportunity to return to Fielding—to refresh and learn something new!

As you browse through these pages, you can see we continue to add offerings of interest to alumni and opportunities to network, engage with faculty and students, and welcome new graduates into the Fielding Alumni Network. We appreciate your consistent feedback to help us continually improve our offerings to keep learning opportunities fresh and relevant to the growing alumni community.

We also want our programming to reflect Fielding's commitment to alumni as key members of our Fielding community. Having you present at Summer Session only strengthens the university's lifelong learning culture.

With many thanks for all that you do in society as teachers, organizational consultants, coaches, leaders, and human beings. I look forward to seeing you at session.

Regards,

Katrina S. Rogers, PhD

President

Greetings Fielding alumni,

Remember the day you graduated? Having alumni there to welcome the new graduates into the Alumni Network truly completes the graduate experience. We have special events scheduled just for you and new graduates to gather together in celebration.

As your Alumni Relations connection to Fielding, I extend a warm welcome for you to join us this summer to re-engage with your Fielding colleagues and meet new ones. This year's program offers seminars and workshops across degree programs to brush up on topics to revisit, along with timely and relevant topics providing a interactive space for academic discussion and exploration with faculty, students, and alumni.

The links above provide important SLS Summer Session information including the program schedule and the seminar descriptions. On the following page, Alumni Track and special event information is provided along with important registration information.

Please note registration closes promptly on May 12, 2017, at 9:00 am (PT).

I look forward to greeting you in July and sharing the latest developments in Alumni Relations along with new services and resources Fielding has to offer.

Questions? Feel free to call or email me.

Sincerely,

Hilary Molina

THURSDAY	FRIDAY
July 13	July 14
Re-Imagining our Public Space: Questioning with Humanness and Generosity ALU-I730-1 9:30 am-12:00 pm Kimberly Pearce, MA President, The CMM Institute, Jan Elliott, PhD (HOD 1997), Ilene Wasserman, PhD (HOD 2004), Romi Boucher, PhD (HOD 2014), Barton Buechner, PhD (HOD 2014) The CMM Institute for Personal and Social Evolution hosts a Fielding community conversation about asking our “big questions” in ways that communicate an openness to connecting around our shared humanity and desire for community. This session will explore how our questions determine what gets our attention, what gets made and what we talk about. Given what is happening with communication in public spheres in many countries today, we will lead a session on how we personally can help to change this for the better. To learn more about The CMM Institute, visit: cmminstitute.net	ISI Fellows Workshop GEN-I730-32 9:30 pm -12:00 pm Join this dynamic and experienced panel of alumni scholar-practitioners/entrepreneurs/challenge leaders who will share real time work and “life after Fielding” experiences. If you are interested in the current research of alumni and want to know how to stay connected to your Fielding community after you graduate, this is the session for you. ISI Fellows are Fielding alumni whose research and professional projects are supported administratively to help them seek funding and wider recognition for their work. In this workshop, select ISI Fellows will make brief presentations about their projects. To learn more about ISI, visit: fielding.edu/our-programs/institute-for-social-innovation
Navigating Real World Complexity: The New Currency of Successful Leadership ALU-I730-2 1:00 – 3:30 pm Cynthia Cavalli, PhD (HOD 2014) This presentation is based on a combination of organizational complexity theory and the theory of personality described in the Jungian psychological framework. The focus in this workshop is to identify the qualities of personality best suited to successfully navigate real world complexity. Learn Dr. Cavalli and her work: cynthiacavalliconsulting.com	7 Rhythms of Rest & Renewal: An Experiential Workshop for Leaders ALU-I730-3 1:00 – 3:30 pm Zarat Boyd, PhD (HOD 2015) This experiential workshop is a journey to explore seven rhythms of rest and renewal for leaders. Through storytelling, reflection, and creative exercises, leaders increase awareness on how to build in healthy rhythms. This experiential workshop helps leaders improve personal awareness, increase work-life balance, and achieve more productive results.
